

The Israel-Asia Center cordially invites you to an event marking the conclusion of the first
Israel-Asia Leaders Fellowship

What will Israel-Asia relations look like in 20 years?

What are the challenges that lie ahead?

Who will be spearheading the Israel-Asia relationship in 2032?

What are the next generation's visions of this shared future?

Israel-Asia: Visions of the Future From the Next Generation

Tuesday, May 29, 2012

Konrad Adenauer Conference Center
Mishkenot Shaananim, Jerusalem

This event will bring together leaders of tomorrow – young Asian visionaries engaged in promoting Israel-Asia relations, to discuss:

- Challenges facing Asian economies and education systems in developing their creative and innovation industry.
- What can be learned from the Israel experience, and what can Israel learn from Asia?
- What is the future for Israel-Asia cooperation in cleantech?
- How can Israel and Asia work together to combat challenges of food and water security?
- How should the Israeli higher education establishment target the Asian student market – where are the windows of opportunity?
- Cultural differences and commonalities between East and West Asia: Can the gaps be bridged?
